Re: Exhibit A to Contract

Dear Ambassador Zackios:

Thank you for the opportunity to represent the Republic of the Marshall Islands (RMI). We look forward to educating U.S. officials about the important relationship between the United States and the RMI and to achieve mutually beneficial policy outcomes that strengthen the bilateral relationship.

As we discussed, there are actions we can take in the immediate future to obtain additional attention to and resources for the RMI and to resolve complications involving the REAL ID Act, while also building a case for fair treatment in the 2023 renegotiation of a new economic agreement with the United States. We provide a preliminary outline below.

I. Resources for the Republic of the Marshall Islands

We believe that there is an important education campaign needed for U.S. officials about funding for the RMI. As discussed, there is a great need, as well as a moral and policy imperative, for enhanced U.S. funding for RMI, including but not limited to resources that address the changed circumstances and increased burden on RMI arising from nuclear testing. Such resources would be dedicated to, among other things: (1) the continued cost of cleanup of World War II-era shipwrecks in RMI waters that pose an environmental and safety risk due to oils spills and, ultimately, corrosion of the vessels; and (2) resources under the Compact Trust Fund, which was authorized by the U.S. Congress but never funded.

H.E. Gerald M. Zackios
August 4, 2017

II. Amendment of the REAL ID Act

We agree that it would be beneficial to amend the REAL ID Act in order to ensure that drivers' licenses and personal identification cards remain available for the citizens of the RMI while living in the United States. We understand that last Congress, the Senate passed legislation sponsored by Senate Energy and Natural Resources Chair Lisa Murkowski (Alaska) to permit citizens from the Freely Associated States to obtain drivers' licenses on the same basis as other long-term residents in the United States. We hope to build on that momentum in both Chambers of Congress and with the Administration.

III. Terms of Representation

What is clear from our conversations with you and your colleagues over recent months is that the story of the RMI needs to be amplified in Washington. Decision-makers must be better informed of the RMI's deep sacrifices for the United States, as well as the ongoing contribution to U.S. military strength. Informing key decision-makers as outlined in this proposal is critical to the RMI for practical reasons — protecting the interests of the RMI now and into the future as we approach 2023 — but it is also important for moral reasons, as it is incumbent on the United States to work collaboratively with its partners and own responsibility for its actions of the past.

If you should choose to engage us, we are including the firm's standard policy which describes the manner in which we will bill for legal services and disbursements. A clear understanding of those matters helps to maintain a harmonious professional relationship. I encourage you to consider the matters set forth in this letter carefully and to raise with us any question that you may have now or later about its contents.

We refer matters to those lawyers in this firm who in our judgment can perform the highest quality work, in a timely and efficient manner, and at the lowest cost. We also employ non-lawyer assistants in tasks where lawyers are not necessary, to facilitate the rapid and efficient performance of services.

While I certainly do not expect that you will find the legal representation by this firm to be in any way unsatisfactory, I do encourage you to discuss any problems or questions with me at any time.

For the work described above, we propose an initial monthly retainer of $20,000 with the opportunity to assess the fees and the retainer on a quarterly basis and, with your agreement, adjust either the workload or the fees to ensure continued alignment. We would anticipate the initial phases of this project, as outlined above, running for one year. In addition, expenses advanced on your behalf or internal charges for administrative services (which may exceed our direct costs) are added to the statement rendered for the month in which such expenses or charges are recorded in our billing system.

For new clients, our firm requires a retainer payment at the outset of the engagement. Accordingly, we will require from you a payment in the amount of USD 20,000.00 prior to the commencement of work on your behalf. The retainer will be maintained throughout the engagement and returned upon completion of our services. We reserve the right to apply the retainer to outstanding statements in the event your account falls into arrears, subject to replenishment of the retainer.

Our standard practice is to bill on a monthly basis. This allows our clients to monitor both current and cumulative fees and expenses. We require that payment of statements be made within 30 days of receipt, and we may suspend or terminate any work in progress if timely payment is not made. We may also withdraw from the representation in a manner consistent with applicable ethical standards.

Attached to this letter is our Statement of Firm Policies (the "Statement") that will apply to our representation of you. In the event of a conflict between the terms of the Statement and the terms of this letter, the terms of this letter shall control. Please review these policies and let me know if you have any questions concerning them.

As we discussed, we anticipate that this engagement will require the firm to register with the U.S. Department of Justice under the Foreign Agents Registration Act.

If the terms described above and in the attached Statement are satisfactory to you, please so indicate by signing the Contract for Professional Services.

STATEMENT OF FIRM POLICIES

We appreciate your decision to retain Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP ("Akin Gump") as your legal counsel and look forward to developing our relationship with you in the course of our representation. Our engagement is limited to the matter identified in the engagement letter to which this Statement of Firm Policies is attached. Except as may be modified by the accompanying engagement letter, the following summarizes our billing practices and certain other terms that will apply to our engagement.

1. Determination of Fees

When establishing fees for services that we render, we are guided primarily by the time and labor required, although we also consider other appropriate factors, such as the novelty and difficulty of the legal issues involved; the legal skill required to perform the particular assignment; time-saving use of resources (including research, analysis, data and documentation) that we have previously developed and stored electronically or otherwise in quickly retrievable form; the fee customarily charged by comparable firms for similar legal services; the amount of money involved or at risk and the results obtained; and the time constraints imposed by either the client or the circumstances. The firm generally requires a retainer in an amount which is appropriate with respect to the proposed representation. Unless otherwise agreed, the retainer will be applied to statements rendered in connection with the representation, with any unused portion being returned to the client.

In determining a reasonable fee for the time and labor required for a particular matter, we consider the ability, experience, and reputation of the lawyer or lawyers in our firm who perform the services. To facilitate this determination, we internally assign to each lawyer an hourly rate based on these factors. When selecting lawyers to perform services for a client, we generally seek to assign lawyers having the lowest hourly rates consistent with the skills, time demands, and other factors influencing the professional responsibility required for each matter. Of course, our internal allocation of values for lawyer time changes periodically (at least annually) to account for increases in our cost of delivering legal service, other economic factors, and the augmentation of a particular lawyer's ability, experience and reputation. Any such changes in hourly rates are applied prospectively. We record and bill our time in one-tenth hour (six-minute) increments.

The time for which a client will be charged will include, but will not be limited to, telephone and office conferences between client and counsel, witnesses, consultants, court personnel and others; conferences among our legal personnel; factual investigation; legal research; responding to clients' requests for us to provide information to their auditors in connection with reviews or audits of financial invoices; drafting of agreements, contracts, letters, pleadings, briefs and other documents; travel time; waiting time in court; and time in depositions and other discovery proceedings. In an effort to reduce legal fees, we utilize paralegal personnel. Time devoted by paralegals to client matters is charged at special billing rates, which also are subject to adjustment from time to time by the firm. Our current range of hourly rates for lawyers and paralegals is referenced in the accompanying engagement letter.

2. Expenses

In addition to legal fees, our statements will include out-of-pocket expenses that we have advanced on behalf of the client and our internal charges (which may exceed direct costs) for certain support activities. Advanced costs generally will include such items as travel expenses and fees for postage, filing, recording, certification, registration, and the like. Our internal charges typically cover such items as long distance telephone calls, facsimile transmissions, messenger services, overnight courier services, terminal time for computer research and complex document production, secretarial and paralegal overtime and photocopying or printing materials sent to the client or third parties or required for our use. We may request an advance cost deposit (in addition to the advance fee deposit) when we expect that we will be required to incur substantial costs on behalf of the client.

During the course of our representation, it may be appropriate or necessary to hire third parties to provide services on your behalf. These services may include such things as consulting or testifying experts, investigators, providers of computerized litigation support, court reporters, providers of filing services and searches of governmental records and filings, and local counsel. Because of the legal "work product" protection afforded to services that an attorney requests from third parties, in certain situations, our firm may assume responsibility for retaining the appropriate service providers. If we do so, you will be responsible for paying all fees and expenses directly to the service providers or reimbursing us for these costs.

3. Billings

We bill monthly throughout the engagement for a particular matter, and our monthly statements are due within thirty days after your receipt thereof. In instances in which we represent more than one person with respect to a matter, each person that we represent is jointly and severally liable for our fees with respect to the representation. Our statements contain a concise summary of each matter for which legal services were rendered and a fee was charged.

We invite our clients to discuss freely with us any questions that they have concerning a fee charged for any matter. We want our clients to be satisfied with both the quality of our services and the reasonableness of the fees that we charge for those services. We will attempt to provide as much billing information as the client requires and in such customary form that it desires, and are willing to discuss with our clients any of the various billing formats we have available that best suits their needs.

If any monthly statement is not paid within 60 days after the original statement date, we reserve the right to discontinue services on all pending matters for you until all of your accounts with us have been brought current. Additionally, if any statement is not paid within 60 days from the date of the original statement, we may, by written notice to you on a subsequent statement or otherwise, declare the overdue account to be delinquent. We have no obligation to declare any account delinquent. If we declare an account to be delinquent, the amount owing on that account will accrue interest at a rate equal to one percent (1%) per month (a 12% annual percentage rate) from the date of our delinquency notice to you until the balance is paid in full, but in no event shall such rate exceed the maximum rate permitted by applicable law. Any payments made on past due statements are applied first to interest, if any, and then to the account balance, beginning with the oldest outstanding statement. In addition, we are entitled to attorneys' fees and costs if collection activities are necessary.

4. Scope of Engagement

We will provide services of a strictly legal nature of the kind generally described in the engagement letter that accompanies this attachment. It is understood that you are not relying on us for business, investment, or accounting decisions, or to investigate the character or credit of persons with whom you may be dealing, or to advise you about changes in the law that might affect you unless otherwise specified in the letter. We will keep you advised of developments as necessary to perform our services and will consult with you as necessary to ensure the timely, effective, and efficient completion of our work. Attorneys in the firm typically have several client matters pending and are required to coordinate the scheduling of activities required for each pending client matter.

5. Necessary Information

It is anticipated that you and any other entities affiliated with you will furnish us promptly with all information that we deem to be required to perform the services described in our engagement letter, including financial statements from qualified accountants and auditors, as appropriate, and documents prepared by other legal counsel employed by you in connection with prior or other matters. You will make such business or technical decisions or determinations as are appropriate to carry out our engagement.

Our engagement is premised and conditioned upon your representation that you are not aware of any material facts or current or historical problem (involving such matters as court orders, injunctions, cease and desist orders, judgments, liabilities, litigation, administrative proceedings, crimes, prosecutions, bankruptcies or securities violations) on the part of any person to be connected with you that you have not fully disclosed to us. You understand that the accuracy and completeness of any document (including securities disclosure documents, litigation pleadings and court filings) prepared by us is dependent upon your alertness to assure that it contains all material facts relating to the subject and purpose of such document and that such document must not contain any misrepresentation of a material fact nor omit information necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. To that end, you agree to review all documents prepared by us for their factual accuracy and completeness prior to any use thereof. You also acknowledge that this responsibility continues through our engagement in the event that such document becomes deficient in this regard. You hereby represent and warrant that any material, information, reports and financial statements, whether rendered orally or in writing, furnished to us by you will be accurate, and that we may rely upon the truth or accuracy of such information.

6. Confidentiality and Conflicts

Akin Gump is a large law firm with multiple offices around the world. Because of the firm's size and geographic scope, as well as the breadth and diversity of our practice, other present or future clients of the firm inevitably will have contacts with you. Accordingly, to prevent any future misunderstanding and to preserve the firm's ability to represent you and our other clients, we confirm the following understanding about certain conflicts of interest issues:

Unless we have your specific agreement that we may do so, we will not represent another client in a matter that is substantially related to a matter in which we represent you and in which the other client is adverse to you. We understand the term "matter" to refer to transactions, negotiations, proceedings and other representations involving specific parties.

In the absence of a conflict as described above, you acknowledge that we will be free to represent any other client either generally or in any matter in which you may have an interest, including, but not limited to: (i) agreements; licenses; mergers and acquisitions; joint ventures; loans and financings; securities offerings; bankruptcy or insolvency; patents, copyrights, trademarks, trade secrets or other intellectual property; real estate; government contracts; the protection of rights; and representation before regulatory authorities; and (ii) representation and advocacy with respect to legislative issues, policy issues, administrative proceedings, or rulemakings.

We do not view this advance consent to permit unauthorized disclosure or use of any client confidences. Under applicable Rules of Professional Conduct, we are obligated to and shall preserve the confidentiality of any confidential information you provide to us. In this connection, we may obtain nonpublic personal information about you in the course of our representation. We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to firm personnel who need to know that information in connection with our representation and, as appropriate, third parties assisting in that representation. We maintain appropriate physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards to protect your nonpublic personal information. We do not disclose nonpublic personal information about our clients or former clients to anyone, except as permitted by law and applicable Rules of Professional Conduct.

We will not disclose to you or use on your behalf any documents or information with respect to which we owe a duty of confidentiality to another client or person.

The fact that we may have your documents and/or information that may be relevant to another matter in which we are representing another client will not prevent us from representing that other client in that matter without any further consent from you. In such a case, we will put in place screening and other arrangements to ensure that the confidentiality of your documents and/or information is maintained.

Our professional obligations to you and to our other clients will require us to run a new conflicts check if there is any change in the parties to the matter or any material change in its nature. We must also run a new conflicts check before undertaking any new matters with you.

7. Termination of Engagement

Upon completion of the matter to which this representation applies, or upon earlier termination of our relationship, the attorney-client relationship will end unless you and we have expressly agreed to a continuation with respect to other matters. We hope, of course, that such a continuation will be the case. You have the right at any time to terminate our services and representation upon written notice to the firm. We reserve the right to withdraw from our representation if circumstances arise that under the applicable rules of professional conduct, allow or require us to.

8. Disagreements Regarding Fees

In the event that you believe any statement for our services is erroneous for any reason, you shall notify us of the same within ten business days after receipt of such statement stating the basis for your belief. If agreement cannot be reached with respect to the amount owed, you agree to promptly pay the non-disputed portion of our statement and submit the disputed portion for resolution by the appropriate committee of the organized bar of the city where our office rendering such services is located. If no organized bar exists in that city, then you can submit to the Committee on Arbitration Relating to Fee Disputes (or similar committee) of the regulatory body governing the practice of law in the state or jurisdiction where our office rendering such services is located.

9. Governing Law

OUR ENGAGEMENT SHALL BE GOVERNED BY THE LAWS OF THE JURISDICTION WHERE OUR OFFICE RENDERING OUR SERVICES IS LOCATED AND, EXCEPT FOR DISAGREEMENTS REGARDING FEES SUBMITTED TO ARBITRATION PURSUANT TO PARAGRAPH 8 ABOVE, VENUE FOR ANY OTHER ACTION HEREUNDER SHALL BE IN THE COUNTY WHERE OUR OFFICE RENDERING SUCH SERVICES IS LOCATED.

10. Record Retention

Unless previously terminated, our representation of Sercomm USA Inc. as to assisting Sercomm USA Inc. with the preparation and filing of an application for an FCC Special Temporary Authority will terminate upon the completion of the matter and our sending you our final statement for services rendered in connection with this matter. Following such termination, any otherwise nonpublic information you have supplied to us that is retained by us will be kept confidential in accordance with applicable rules of professional conduct. Following termination, we will return to you all documents and things that you provided to us in connection with our representation. If you do not wish to have your file returned to you, we will transfer it, or the remaining portions, to closed storage and retain it. Pursuant to the Firm's Record Retention Policy, if the Firm retains any portion of your file, at the end of seven years, the Firm will make reasonable efforts to locate and notify you that your file is available for return to you. If you instruct us to do so, files will be returned to you. Clients may be charged shipping costs for the return of client files. The responsible attorney should determine if it is appropriate depending upon the size of the matter and the extent of the likely cost to the firm. If you do not respond to the request, or if you so instruct us, the file will be destroyed. By agreeing to and accepting our representation as described in this letter, you agree to keep us informed of your most current address during the stated retention period.

11. Miscellaneous

The engagement letter to which this Statement of Firm Policies is attached constitutes our entire understanding and agreement with respect to the terms of our engagement and supersedes any prior understandings and agreements, written or oral. If any provision of our engagement letter is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remainder of the provisions shall remain in full force and effect. Our engagement letter may only be amended in writing by the parties hereto.

Your agreement to this engagement constitutes your acceptance of the foregoing terms and conditions. If any of them is unacceptable to you, please advise us now so that we can resolve any differences and proceed with a clear, complete, and consistent understanding of our relationship.
